Thank you for your interest in Toastmasters! Your club contact request has been received.

[Club Name] will be reaching out to you shortly. In the meantime, we invite you to learn more about Toastmasters and what to expect prior to visiting a club meeting.

The Club Experience

Watch this video to see what happens at club meetings and how the club experience can help you improve your communication and leadership skills.

Member Testimonials

Members from different backgrounds share how Toastmasters made a difference in their personal and professional lives.

The Pathways Learning Experience

Learn about Pathways, the Toastmasters' education program that sets you on a journey of personal and professional development.

Frequently asked questions

Do I need to contact a club before attending?
While not required, we do recommend contacting a club prior to visiting it, to confirm meeting time and location.

Am I required to speak at a club meeting?
No. You are not obligated to speak when visiting a club. You may simply observe, if you wish.

Can I visit more than one club?
Yes. We encourage you to visit multiple clubs to find the one that best fits you and your needs.

How long do club meetings last?
Meeting times range from 1–2 hours.

Do I need to bring anything to a club meeting?
No. You are not required to bring anything to a meeting.

Is there a leader or instructor?
There is no instructor in a Toastmasters meeting. The club will have elected officers present and a Toastmaster member who facilitates the meeting.

Can anyone become a member?
As long as you are at least 18 years old, you can apply for membership in a club.

How much does it cost to become a member?
Members pay international dues of $45 USD every six months. (Some clubs may charge additional fees.) There is a new-member fee of $20 USD.

How do I join?
When you find the club you want to join, ask the vice president membership for a membership application. The club will consider your application and vote to consider your application to the club.

Need additional assistance?
Call +1 720-439-5050