SENIOR
LEADERSHIP TEAM

Daniel Rex / Executive Director

Daniel Rex oversees the World Headquarters team as they carry out the directives of the Board of Directors and membership at large. He also supports the Board in developing and executing the organization's strategic objectives.

Jennifer Quinn

Board/Executive Support Manager
Ext. 205 / jquinn@toastmasters.org

Sally Newell Cohen / Managing Director, Communications and Development

As Managing Director, Communications and Development, Sally leads the division responsible for content development, research and planning, and volunteer leader support, which includes Club and District Services; Education and Training; website-content and design; and Marketing Communications. She is also Secretary Treasurer of the Board of Directors and is instrumental in strategic development and implementation for the organization.

Monique Berry / Director, Marketing Communications

As Director, Marketing Communications, Monique oversees all aspects of communication and marketing, which includes public relations, branding, graphic design and marketing. She ensures that the organization is strongly positioned and that volunteer leaders have access to marketing, branding and public relations materials they need to successfully grow clubs and membership.

Sam Farajian / Director of Technology Services

As Director of Technology Services, Sam Farajian administers and coordinates all phases of the organization's information technology services, including system design, development, security, implementation and maintenance. He also explores and delivers technologies, underpinning the organization's strategic objectives and plans.

Darci Maenpa / Director of Member Support

As Director of Member Support, Darci Maenpa's responsibilities include overseeing Member Services. She ensures that every member receives outstanding customer service with each call, email and transaction.

John Bond / Controller

As Controller, John Bond is responsible for the organization's financial affairs, overseeing all budgeting, forecasting and cash management. He provides financial-management reporting to the organization's leadership and safeguards the company's assets and internal controls. He also supports the financial activities of clubs and districts.