Relevant work experience and how it relates to Toastmasters and your role as a Region Advisor:

My company, Sharon Hill International, focuses on training. As a certified etiquette trainer, my clients are corporations, universities, and associations. This gives me experience to train district officers at the International Convention.

I ask what my client wants the audience to learn based upon current situations. Rather than give a cookie cutter approach, I customize based on client needs. I will do the same for the districts as as we consider approaches to meet their needs.

What experience and key strengths do you bring to the district leaders?

Success as a district governor in attaining Distinguished District, IBM management feedback that rated me within the top 10% of managers, focus on attaining goals, people-person, strong listening skills.

Why are you interested in serving as region advisor?

To continue my personal growth with new challenges. By using my strengths to help districts attain their Distinguished District (or higher) goals, I will grow and the district teams will grow.
