

TOASTMASTERS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Andrew Little

2011–2013 International Director, Region 5

Andrew Little, DTM, of New Berlin, Wisconsin, works as a software quality assurance engineer for Thomson Reuters. He has nearly 20 years' experience working in the financial services industries of banking, collections, insurance and securities.

Little graduated from the Cleveland Institute of Electronics with a certificate from the Electronic Engineering Certificate Program and from the Waukesha County Technical College's Present Web development Applied Science Program.

Beyond Toastmasters, Little has served as a scout leader with Boy Scouts of America. He has also worked with the United Way of Waukesha County providing speaker training for agency representatives. Little also works with the William C. Needler 40+ Job Forum. His work and volunteer experience includes preparing financial statements, budgets, payroll tax returns as well as negotiating with state agencies, vendors and the Internal Revenue Service.

A dedicated Toastmaster since 2003, Little is a member of the Resource Advanced Toastmasters club in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and the Waukesha Toastmasters club in Waukesha, Wisconsin. He has attained the Distinguished Toastmaster designation — the highest level of achievement in Toastmasters. Little has been honored as the District Toastmaster of the Year. After joining his district's leadership team, the district experienced significant growth and became distinguished — a mark of success that had not been achieved in that district for several years.

Little is passionate about his Toastmasters experiences and is excited to expand Toastmasters' brand recognition, helping it to become recognized as "the premier leadership development organization in the world."

As a Director of the Toastmasters International Board of Directors, Little is a "working ambassador" for the organization. He works with the Board to develop, support and modify the policies and procedures that guide the organization in fulfilling its mission. Little was elected to his current two-year term in August 2011.

About Toastmasters

Toastmasters International is a nonprofit educational organization that teaches public speaking and leadership skills through a worldwide network of clubs. Founded in October 1924, the organization currently has more than 270,000 members in 13,000 clubs in 116 countries. Each week, Toastmasters helps more than a quarter million people of every ethnicity, education and profession build their competence in communication so they can gain the confidence to lead others.
