

TOASTMASTERS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Sharon Anita Hill

2013–2015 International Director, Region 7

Sharon Anita Hill, DTM, of Chapel Hill, North Carolina, is a professional speaker. In 2004, she founded Sharon Hill International where she trains corporate employees as well as university students in the area of etiquette. She also serves as a keynote and motivational speaker for professional organizations. A retired Junior Executive at IBM, Hill is a past president of the Greater Raleigh Chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners. She serves as an Officer for Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Triangle.

Hill earned an MBA in organizational behavior from Kennedy-Western University. A past president of the International Society for Performance Improvement, she holds a certification in communications from Duke University and is a Certified Etiquette Trainer.

A Toastmaster for nine years, Hill has been a member of her home club, Chapel Hill Toastmasters in Chapel Hill, since 2004. She has held a number of high-profile leadership positions within the organization and has attained the Distinguished Toastmaster designation—the highest level of educational achievement in Toastmasters.

Hill says, “I have been able to transfer my leadership skills from the corporate world to Toastmasters.”

As a member of the Toastmasters International Board of Directors, Hill is a “working ambassador” for the organization. She works with the Board to develop, support and modify the policies and procedures that guide Toastmasters International in fulfilling its mission.
