Kristina Kihlberg

2012–2014 International Director, Region 8

Kristina Kihlberg, DTM, of Pompano Beach, Florida, is Senior Vice President of Operations with ExpatRide International. Her work involves building strategic partnerships, product enhancement and data analysis for problem resolution. Educated at the Majornas Gymnasium in Gothenburg, Sweden, Kihlberg remains active in the local Swedish community, where she serves on the board in the South Florida chapter of the Swedish Women Educational Association, an organization that caters to Swedish women around the world. Kihlberg is a member of the Swedish-American Chamber of Commerce. She is also a member of the Swedish church and performs as a soprano in the church choir.

A dedicated Toastmaster since 2002, Kihlberg's home club is Toast of Las Olas in Fort Lauderdale. However, she is actively involved with several other clubs. She has held a number of high-profile leadership positions within the organization and has attained the Distinguished Toastmaster designation — the highest level of achievement in Toastmasters. Kihlberg credits Toastmasters with providing her a solid foundation of skills, including refining English as a second language.

As a member of the Toastmasters International Board of Directors, Kihlberg is a “working ambassador” for the organization. She works with the Board to develop and support the policies and procedures that guide Toastmasters International in fulfilling its mission.
