

DISTRICT ADMINISTRATIVE BYLAWS

District Administrative Bylaws

Article I: Authority and Title

(a) Authority

These District Administrative Bylaws are promulgated under the authority of Article XII of the Bylaws of Toastmasters International, by its Board of Directors, relating to district administration.

(b) District Title

This district shall be designated as set forth in the title of these administrative bylaws.

Article II: Purposes

The purpose of this district is to enhance the quality and performance and extend the network of the member clubs of Toastmasters International within the boundaries of this district, thereby offering greater numbers of people the opportunity to benefit from the Toastmasters educational program by:

Focusing on the critical success factors as specified by the district educational and membership goals.

Ensuring that each club effectively fulfills its responsibilities to its individual members.

Providing effective training and leadership-development opportunities for club and district officers.

In order to carry out the purpose, the officers of this district are empowered to manage Toastmasters International programs and activities within this district, and to act as stewards of Toastmasters International's assets for this district. Using such powers and assets, this district shall:

1. Assist each member club to fulfill effectively its responsibility to its individual members;
2. Encourage and assist in the training of member club officers;
3. Develop a close relationship between member clubs and Toastmasters International;
4. Promote interest in, and extend the benefits of, individual membership in Toastmasters clubs;
5. Help in the organization of new Toastmasters clubs; and
6. Encourage member clubs to undertake programs and projects that will cause greater community awareness of the Toastmasters programs and meet the needs of individual members.

Article III: Affiliation and Liability

(a) With Toastmasters Clubs

All member clubs in Toastmasters International in good standing within the boundaries of this district, and all such clubs organized hereafter, shall be affiliated with this district. However, this district shall have no liability to any third party for any debt or obligation of any club, nor shall any club have any liability to any third party for any debt or obligation of this district or any other component part of Toastmasters International.

(b) With Toastmasters International

This district is an integral part of Toastmasters International, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation, and, as an administrative unit of that corporation, its activities and affairs shall be managed, and its powers exercised, under the ultimate direction of the Board of Directors of Toastmasters International. This district is not an independent or autonomous legal entity. Because Toastmasters International is the exclusive owner of all the trade names, trademarks, service marks, emblems, insignia, and copyrights associated with the Toastmasters collective membership mark, no district has the authority to create a separate legal entity.

(c) Receivership

In situations where the ability of a district to accomplish the mission set forth in Article II is in serious jeopardy, the Board of Directors of Toastmasters International may declare the district to be in full or partial receivership. Where the situation is urgent and immediate action is required, the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors may act under Article V, Section 6, of the Bylaws of Toastmasters International to declare a district to be in full or partial receivership. Under a declaration of receivership, all or part of the provisions of these District Administrative Bylaws may be suspended, modified, or augmented, which may include, as appropriate, provisions regarding the conduct of financial affairs, the filling of vacancies in district officer positions, and the operation of the district council, the district executive committee, and other district committees. The declaration shall delegate authority over the district in receivership to the International President, to an international vice president, to an acting district director, to the Executive Director, or to a combination of the foregoing, for the period of time specified on the declaration.

Article IV: Policy

This district shall not adopt any policy in conflict with any policy of Toastmasters International, and its actions shall be consistent with the purposes and ideals of Toastmasters International. These administrative bylaws shall be deemed automatically modified and amended so that they shall at no time be in conflict or inconsistent with the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws or Policies established by the Board of Directors of Toastmasters International, as they now exist or hereafter may be changed or amended.

Article V: Boundaries

The geographic boundaries of this district shall be as follows: _____.

The district council of this district shall have the authority to change such boundaries, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of Toastmasters International.

Article VI: Area and Division Organization

The member clubs of this district shall be organized into areas, the number and composition of which shall be determined by the district council at its annual meeting, to become effective the following July 1. Each area shall be under the direction of an area director acting under the district director and district council. This district may further organize areas together into divisions under the supervision of division directors. Any such division of the district into divisions shall be accomplished at the annual meeting to become effective the following July 1.

Article VII: Officers

(a) District Officers

The officers of this district shall be a district director, a program quality director, a club growth director, a public relations manager, a district administration manager, a district finance manager, area directors, and may include division directors at the discretion of the district council. In addition to these officers, the district may have such other officers as the district council may provide, but Toastmasters International credit toward any educational award is limited to service as a district officer named in the preceding sentence.

(b) Elective Officers

The elective officers of this district shall be the district director, the program quality director, the club growth director, and any division directors. No district officer may be re-elected to the same office for succeeding terms in which a full year has been served, except that the division directors may be re-elected to succeed themselves for one term. The election of officers shall take place at the annual meeting of the district council. The report of the district nominating committee shall be submitted in writing to all members of the district council at least four weeks prior to the election meeting. Nominations may also be made from the floor by any member of the district council. All elections shall be by secret ballot, unless a secret ballot is dispensed with by unanimous vote. A majority of the votes cast is necessary for an election.

(c) Other Officers

The other officers of this district shall be the public relations manager, the district administration manager, the district finance manager, and the area director for each area. These officers may be elected or may be appointed by and serve at the will of the district director, subject to the approval of the district executive committee and confirmation by the district council. The public relations manager, the district administration manager and the district finance manager shall be eligible for re-election or re-appointment for one succeeding term only. The offices of district administration manager and district finance manager may be combined. Area directors may be elected by the area councils. Area directors shall be eligible for re-election or re-appointment for one succeeding term only.

(d) Qualifications

At the time of taking office, the district director shall have served at least six consecutive months as a club president and at least 12 consecutive months as a program quality director and club growth director or division director or a combination thereof. The program quality director and club growth director shall have served at least six consecutive months as club president and at least 12 consecutive months as a program quality director, a club growth director, a division director or an area director or a combination thereof. The division directors shall have served at least six consecutive months as members of a district council. Insofar as practicable, the area directors shall have served as members of a district council. All district officers must be active individual members of member clubs and must be in good standing with Toastmasters International under Article III, Section 8 of the Bylaws of Toastmasters International.

(e) Term of Office

The terms of all district officers shall commence at 12:01 a.m. on July 1 and end on the following June 30, at midnight.

(f) Vacancies

A vacancy in any elective office shall be filled by the district executive committee based upon the recommendation of the district director, or upon recommendation of the highest elected district officer if the vacancy is in the office of district director. Such appointment shall become effective immediately and will run until the next succeeding district council meeting at which time such appointment shall be confirmed or another individual member elected to the office. If the office of immediate past district governor is vacated for any reason, it shall stay vacant for the remainder of the term.

(g) Resignation or Removal

Any officer may resign at any time, provided that any resignation must be in writing, and will be effective on delivery to the district administration manager or the district director, unless the resignation provides for a later effective date. Any member of the district executive committee may be removed from office by a two-thirds vote of the district executive committee. Any appointed officer may be removed from office at the district director's discretion by the district director. Such removal of an appointed officer shall become effective immediately; appointment of a replacement shall be made by the same procedure as the original appointment. The members of the district executive committee are responsible to the Board of Directors of Toastmasters International, and may be removed at any time by that board if it finds it to be in the best interests of Toastmasters International, its member clubs and their individual members, to do so.

(h) Compensation

No district, division, or area officer shall receive a salary or other compensation except a return for expenses incurred for the benefit of the organization and only to the extent provided for in the adopted district budget.

Article VIII: Duties of Officers

(a) In General

The district officers shall have such obligations, responsibilities, and duties as may be set forth in policies prescribed from time to time by the Board of Directors or in the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of Toastmasters International, in these administrative bylaws, or in standing rules or policies adopted by the district council of this district. The authority delegated by the Board of Directors of Toastmasters International to district officers to act as stewards of Toastmasters International's resources in the district is subject at all times to the ultimate direction of the Board.

(b) District Director

The district director shall report to and take direction from the district council in matters pertaining to district organization, programs, and procedures, but the district director shall be ultimately responsible to the Board of Directors in the exercise of his or her powers and duties. The district director shall uphold and promote the purposes of Toastmasters International in the district. As the representative of Toastmasters International, the district director, personally and through the program quality director and club growth director, shall carry out the programs approved by the Board of Directors and the district council. The district director presides at all meetings of the district council and the district executive committee; fills such appointive offices as are provided for in these administrative bylaws, subject to the approval of the district executive committee and confirmation by the district council; authorizes withdrawals of district funds, in the manner and to the extent provided in Article XII of these administrative bylaws; and must approve all withdrawals chargeable to the district on the books of Toastmasters International. By the published deadlines, the district director shall submit to the Board of Directors any reports that may be required by the Board of Directors. The district director shall provide to each member club in this district and to World Headquarters, copies of the adopted budget, the report of the audit committee, and such other reports as the Board of Directors from time to time may require. The district director shall furnish World Headquarters with such information as the Board of Directors from time to time may require before the district shall be eligible to withdraw funds of Toastmasters International authorized by the Board of Directors for district activities and operations.

(c) Program Quality Director

The program quality director is the second-ranking member of the district executive committee, and presides over that body and the district council in the absence of the district director. The program quality director assists the education committees of the member clubs and areas and divisions of the district in utilizing the educational programs and materials of Toastmasters International and has the responsibility for: the training of all division, area and club officers; the preparing and conducting of educational programs for district conferences; the supervising and coordinating of district-wide speech contests; and the formulating of specific educational recognition programs. The program quality director shall attend district council meetings.

(d) Club Growth Director

The club growth director is the third-ranking member of the district executive committee and presides over that body and the district council in the absence of the district director and program quality director. The club growth director is responsible for the development, direction, and coordination of an overall marketing plan necessary for building new member clubs; the increase in individual membership and retaining members in the district; the recruitment and training of district marketing teams; and the formulation of specific membership building recognition programs. The club growth director shall attend district council meetings.

(e) Public Relations Manager

The public relations manager serves under the direction of the district director and is responsible for the development and administration of a public relations program that will provide improved understanding by individual members of clubs and the public of the opportunities available for personal development in the Toastmasters International Communication and Leadership Programs.

(f) Division Directors

The division directors shall coordinate the activities of area directors within the division and provide area officers with a supervisory head for counsel, information, and service.

(g) Area Directors

The area directors shall be responsible for the member clubs within their areas and shall represent the district director and, if applicable, the division director to the clubs in their areas. As presiding officer of the area council, the area director shall hold regular area council meetings, and shall appoint (or provide for the election by clubs in the area of) an area staff for the conduct of area activities between area council meetings. The area director shall perform such other duties as the district director and district council may prescribe.

(h) District Administration Manager

The district administration manager shall have custody of this district's administrative bylaws and all other records and documents of this district; shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the district council and district executive committee; and shall transmit the same to the successor. The district administration manager shall have charge of all district correspondence, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the district director or district council.

(i) District Finance Manager

The district finance manager shall have charge of all funds and other personal property of the district and shall transmit the accounts and all undistributed funds to the successor. The district finance manager shall disburse all funds upon order of the district director, as provided herein, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the district director or district council.

Article IX: District Council

(a) Composition

The district council shall consist of the district executive committee, as defined in Article XI\(a\) hereof, and the club president and vice president education from each member club in the district. These shall be the only voting members of the district council, and references made in these administrative bylaws to "members of the district council" shall mean only voting members.

(b) Authority

The district council shall serve as the administrative governing body of the district, operating with powers delegated to the district council by the Board of Directors of Toastmasters International and subject at all times to the ultimate direction of the Board of Directors and the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, Policies, and decisions of Toastmasters International, and these administrative bylaws. The district council shall conduct all business of the district, shall assume responsibility for the payment, with district funds, of all debts incurred in the presentation of district council meetings and other district functions, and shall not assess or impose any financial obligation on any member club or any individual member of a club.

Article X: Council Meetings, Quorum, Proxies, and Voting

(a) Regular Meetings

The district council shall hold at least two regular meetings during each year, with the exact number and schedule of meetings to be fixed by the district council from time to time. One of the required meetings shall be called the “annual meeting,” and shall be held between March 15 and June 1. The other required meeting shall be held as soon as practical after the Annual Business Meeting of Toastmasters International, but in no event later than December 1. Notice of any regular meeting shall be sent in writing to all district council members at least four weeks prior to the date of such meeting. Both meetings shall include in their schedule educational programs or sessions for all district council members attending.

(b) Special Meetings

Special meetings of the district council may be called by the International President, the district director, a majority of the district executive committee, or not less than one-fourth of the members of the district council. Notice thereof shall be sent in writing to all district council members at least two weeks prior to the date of such meeting, and shall set forth the purpose for which such meeting is called, but any business otherwise valid may be transacted at the meeting.

(c) Quorum

One-third of the club presidents and vice presidents education from member clubs in the district, or proxies as authorized by subparagraph (d) hereof, shall constitute a quorum for all district council meetings. In the event that any business is transacted at any district council meeting at which a quorum is not present, the action shall be deemed as valid as if a quorum were present if it thereafter is expressly approved in writing, personally, by mail, fax, e-mail, electronic transmission or other reasonable means, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the member clubs in the district on the basis of two (2) votes per club.

(d) Proxies

Either the club president or vice president education of any member club may designate, in writing, any active individual member of the club to act as a proxy for him or her at any district council meeting. In the event one of those officers is not in attendance at the meeting and has not designated, in writing, an active individual member of the club to act as his or her proxy at such meeting, the officer or proxyholder in attendance shall be deemed to hold the proxy of the other and may therefore cast two votes at such meeting. The intent of this provision is to assure that every club will be represented by two votes. No other proxies shall be valid at a district council meeting. A written proxy, to be valid at a district council meeting, must contain all the elements set forth in Toastmasters International policy and must be delivered personally, by mail, by fax, by e-mail, by electronic transmission, or by other reasonable means to the club member who will hold the proxy. The proxy holder must present the proxy in paper form (i.e., print out an e-mail) to the credentials desk. If the proxy does not bear a handwritten signature, it must have the typed name of the club officer(s) giving the proxy or some other indication that the club officer(s) authorized the proxy to be given. A proxy that complies with these requirements shall be treated as valid so long as the credentials desk has no reason to believe that the proxy was not authorized. A proxy holder cannot transfer or assign a proxy to someone else. A valid proxy delivered to the proxy holder is revoked only if the club officer who gave the proxy takes one of the following subsequent actions: he or she destroys the proxy, cancels the proxy in writing, issues another proxy authorized at a later date, or actually attends the district council meeting.

(e) Voting

Each member of the district council in attendance at a council meeting, or his or her proxy as authorized by subparagraph (d) hereof, is entitled to one vote. Any active individual member who carries the proxies of both the club president and vice president education from a member club is entitled to two votes; and any such individual member who is also entitled to a vote as a member of the district executive committee is entitled to three votes. All other members of the district council shall be limited to a maximum of two votes.

Article XI: Committees

(a) District Executive Committee

The district director, the program quality director, the club growth director, the public relations manager, the district administration manager, the district finance manager, the area directors, and any division directors, together with the immediate past district governor, shall be the district executive committee, which shall have all functions and powers of the district council except such powers as may be reserved by the district council to itself; subject at all times to the general direction and approval of the district council. A majority of the district executive committee shall constitute a quorum. This committee shall recommend the division of the district into areas and divisions (optional) for approval at the annual meeting. The district executive committee shall prepare a budget in the form prescribed by Toastmasters International, covering estimated receipts and expenditures for the ensuing year, and shall submit it to World Headquarters by September 30. This proposed budget shall be acted upon by the district council at its first meeting. The district executive committee shall have such other duties as are delegated to it by the district council.

(b) District Nominating Committee

The district director shall appoint the nominating committee chair no later than October 1. The remaining committee members shall be appointed no later than November 1 and shall consist of no fewer than five members. The committee shall operate under the procedural rules adopted by the Toastmasters International Board of Directors for the selection of candidates for the elective district offices. The committee's results shall be reported in writing to the district director no fewer than six weeks before the district's annual meeting. The district director shall submit the nominating committee report to the members of the district council at least four weeks prior to the annual meeting.

(c) Audit Committee

Each year the district director shall appoint an audit committee consisting of at least three individual members who are not members of the district executive committee. The reports of this committee shall contain information in the format required by Toastmasters

International. The committee shall submit an interim mid-year audit report no later than February 15. The committee shall then complete a year-end audit report for the fiscal year ending June 30. The outgoing and incoming district directors are jointly responsible for submitting this report to the member clubs and to World Headquarters by August 31.

(d) Other Committees

Other committees may be appointed from time to time as may be deemed advisable by the district director or the district council. Such committees may include, among others, the following special committees: district program quality, district club growth, district public relations, Youth Leadership program, Speechcraft, administrative policies, awards, speakers bureau, district newsletter, and past district directors committee.

Article XII: Finances and Records

(a) Finances

The conduct of this district's financial affairs shall be subject to policies established by the Toastmasters International Board of Directors from time to time. Payments of district expenses shall be made only for expense items benefitting the district and consistent with the purposes and policies of Toastmasters International. Toastmasters International will transfer funds to the district upon presentation of a requisition which sets forth the purpose of the withdrawal and which is signed by the district director and either the district administration manager or district finance manager. All disbursements of district funds shall be subject to the approval of the district council and shall be in accordance with the district budget, unless otherwise approved by the Board of Directors.

(b) Records

The outgoing district officers shall transfer to the incoming officers, in good order, the complete records of their respective offices by the beginning of the administrative year (July1).

Article XIII: Rules of Order

Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall be the final authority on parliamentary procedure insofar as Robert's Rules do not conflict with any provision of these administrative bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of Toastmasters International, policies set by the Board of Directors of Toastmasters International from time to time, or applicable law, provided that if the district is located in a jurisdiction where Robert's Rules are not a recognized authority on parliamentary procedure, this district may use the recognized authority in the jurisdiction where this district is located in place of Robert's Rules.

Article XIV: Political Activity

This district shall not take any official position on any issue of local, state, or national public policy, or otherwise engage in any legislative lobbying. This district shall not participate or intervene in any way in any campaign of any person for any public office.

Article XV: Legal Action

This district shall not file any lawsuit as a party plaintiff, hire legal counsel, file any response to any lawsuit, respond to any subpoena, or take any other legal action without the prior written approval of the Executive Director of Toastmasters International. In the event this district is served with any summons, complaint, subpoena, injunction, or other form of legal process, the district officer receiving the legal process shall so notify World Headquarters within 24 hours of such service.

Article XVI: Governing Law

This district shall be governed by, and these administrative bylaws shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of California, where Toastmasters International is incorporated, regardless of where this district is located.

Article XVII: Amendments and Other Rules

- (a) Amendments to these administrative bylaws shall be made only by the Board of Directors of Toastmasters International. The administrative bylaws for this district shall be identical, except for the description of boundaries in Article V above, to the administrative bylaws for all other districts of Toastmasters International. The Executive Director of Toastmasters International shall notify the following of any amendment adopted by the Board of Directors: all member clubs and the district director, the program quality director, the club growth director, the immediate past district governor, the public relations manager, the district administration manager, the district finance manager, the division directors and area directors of each district.
- (b) The district council of this district may propose an amendment to these administrative bylaws to the Board of Directors or Executive Committee of Toastmasters International, provided that the district council shall have given written notice of such proposal at least 30 days in advance of the district council's action to all member clubs affiliated with this district, and shall thereafter give 45 days' written notice to the Board. The Board of Directors or Executive Committee of Toastmasters International, whichever is the next to meet after submission of a proposed amendment, shall consider the proposal at its next meeting. No proposed amendment shall become effective without the approval of the Board of Directors or Executive Committee.
- (c) Policies and standing rules applicable only to this district may be adopted by the Board of Directors of Toastmasters International, or by the district council of this district. Such policies and rules must be submitted promptly to World Headquarters to be kept on file, and must not be in conflict with any provision of these administrative bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of Toastmasters International, policies adopted by the Board of Directors, or applicable law. The Board reserves the right to review, disapprove, or modify any such policy or standing rule. In addition, the Board may test the feasibility of potential amendments to these administrative bylaws by allowing alterations, at specific times and locations, that may conflict with existing provisions of these administrative bylaws.
