

SENIOR LEADERSHIP TEAM

Daniel Rex / Executive Director

Daniel Rex oversees the World Headquarters team as they carry out the directives of the Board of Directors and membership at large. He also supports the Board in developing and executing the organization's strategic objectives.

Jennifer Quinn

Board/Executive Support Manager
Ext. 205 / jquinn@toastmasters.org

Sally Newell Cohen / Managing Director, Communications and Development

As Managing Director, Communications and Development, Sally oversees all aspects of communication and marketing; club and district volunteer leader support; education and training program research, development and implementation; and public relations, branding and marketing. She is instrumental in strategic development and implementation.

Vince Rinner / Director of Technology Services

As Director of Technology Services, Vince Rinner is responsible for the technology behind the organization, overseeing all information management. He also oversees production, facilities and shipping departments to ensure staffing, equipment and processes are in line with the long-term strategic goals.

Darci Maenpa / Director of Member Support

As Director of Member Support, Darci Maenpa's responsibilities include overseeing Member Services. She ensures that every member receives outstanding customer service with each call, email and transaction.

John Bond / Controller

As Controller, John Bond is responsible for the organization's financial affairs, overseeing all budgeting, forecasting and cash management. He provides financial-management reporting to the organization's leadership and safeguards the company's assets and internal controls. He also supports the financial activities of clubs and districts.