INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION SITE SELECTION

1. The site for the Annual Convention of Toastmasters International shall be selected by the Executive Director, in consultation with the Executive Committee, at least three (3) years in advance.
2. When held in North America, consideration will be given, insofar as practical, to planned rotation of the convention site within each geographical area of central, east and west.
3. The Annual Convention will be held in August during the second week as first preference, the third week as second preference, and the fourth week as third preference.
