Welcome to Club Officer Training. As a training facilitator, you are responsible for conveying the information that club officers need to fulfill their roles. Well-trained club officers are equipped to enhance club quality, develop and lead successful teams and thrive in the Distinguished Club Program. All of these abilities contribute to fulfill the club mission.

Club officers dedicate valuable time and provide a tremendous service to Toastmasters. It is important that they understand the importance of their roles and know how appreciated they are.

While many club officers will be content, and even enthusiastic, about their new responsibilities, others may feel uncertain and obligated. Attending the training and fulfilling their roles implies great commitment deserving of recognition.

As a training facilitator, it’s important not to overwhelm club officers. Be sure to impart to them that support is close at hand. Their fellow club officers, district leaders, and the staff at World Headquarters are all available and eager to assist them.

Each session in the Club Officer Training consists of a facilitator guide and a PowerPoint presentation.

Facilitator Guide
This is a tool to guide the facilitator in teaching the session. Each session includes a corresponding facilitator guide. The facilitator should print him or herself a copy of the facilitator guide for each session.

PowerPoint Presentation
This is to be presented by the facilitator during the session. There is one presentation for each session. The facilitator downloads the presentation to his or her laptop before the training and makes sure to have a projector and screen available during the session. The PowerPoint slides correspond to instructions in the facilitator guide.

Facilitator Preparation
Before the training, review From Speaker to Trainer (Item 257A) for instructions about presenting, especially if you are new to facilitating training sessions.

Learn about the location where the training takes place. Determine the best way to set up the room, and confirm the equipment that is available there.
Communicate with participants well in advance. Make sure they know what to expect — where to go, what to bring, how long sessions last, and so on. Send reminders as the training date nears.

Visit the Logos, Images and Templates page at www.toastmasters.org/resources/logos-images-and-templates for templates to create professional-looking agendas, training invitations, name cards, and other material for the sessions.
USING THE FACILITATOR GUIDE

The facilitator guide is designed to be easy to use with detailed instructions. Nonetheless, be personable; it’s okay to add your own anecdotes to the sessions and share what is unique in your district.

The facilitator guide of each session is organized the same way:

- The introduction begins with an explanation of the session.
- An overview lists the topics presented in the session.
- Objectives are what the club officers will be able to do as a result of attending the session.
- The materials you need to conduct the session are listed after the objectives.
- The length of time it should take you to conduct the session is suggested under the heading Duration.
- Beginning with the title of the first section, the guide presents a series of step-by-step instructions telling you exactly how to conduct the session.
- Throughout the guide, notes to the facilitator provide you with information to help you understand the purpose of the subsequent section or activity. By understanding what club officers are meant to learn, you can more easily guide discussions and answer questions.
- The outside margins provide space for you to take notes.
Verbs
To help the facilitator refer to the guide at a glance, a limited number of verbs are used to begin each of the numbered steps in the sessions:

1. SHOW: to present a visual aid
2. PRESENT: to impart knowledge pertinent to session objectives
3. TELL: to offer information not directly relevant to session objectives
4. ASK: to request actual answers from participants (At times, the question is followed by possible answers. Give participants an opportunity to offer answers; then share any that weren’t covered.)
5. INSTRUCT: to tell participants to do something
6. TIME: to keep track of time
7. WRITE: to record ideas so they are visible to participants
8. DISCUSS: to facilitate a conversation among the group

Icons
The following icons appear in the margins throughout the facilitator guide to indicate specific actions the facilitator takes at that step:

Bullet Points

Color-coded bullet points in the facilitator guide also help you stay on track:

- Session objectives and materials are listed in the overview of each session with yellow bullet points.
- Light blue bullet points indicate content-related information to share with participants.
- Questions are posed using navy blue bullet points.
  - At times, questions are followed by possible answers. Give participants an opportunity to offer answers; then share any that weren’t covered.

Introduction

NOTE TO FACILITATOR

When you introduce yourself, be sure to mention your background in Toastmasters. Highlight the awards you’ve received, how long you’ve been a member and what club officer roles you’ve served.

If someone asks you a question and you don’t know the answer, send the question back to the group. Try asking, “What do you all think?” or “Does anyone have insight on this issue?” Club officers who have served before are great resources.

1. SHOW the Introduction slide.

![Introduction Slide]

2. PRESENT

- Congratulations! As the elected president of your Toastmasters club, you have an opportunity to set the tone for your club and provide supportive leadership.

- Your influence and example bring out the best in members and club officers alike.

NOTE TO FACILITATOR

Make an effort to vary your tone of voice when reading information off of slides.
3. SHOW the Session Agenda slide.

4. PRESENT the session agenda:
   - President Role
   - President Responsibilities
   - President Resources

5. SHOW the Session Objectives slide.

President Role
(25 minutes)

NOTE TO FACILITATOR
As you present this section, think about your experience. If you have served as a president, identify examples you can share with participants.

1. SHOW the President Role slide.

2. TELL presidents they can find information about their role in the Club Leadership Handbook (Item 1310).

NOTE TO FACILITATOR
When asking a question to the group, give participants time to think. Wait at least 10 seconds for participants to reflect and respond.

3. ASK

- What is the essence of the president role?
  - Sets the tone for the club
  - Provides leadership to executive committee and club members
NOTE TO FACILITATOR

Leading large group discussions is easier when participants raise hands and wait to be called on before speaking. This ensures that everyone is heard and interruptions are minimal.

4. PRESENT

- Through this session you will learn how to make this manageable.

NOTE TO FACILITATOR

Sometimes group discussion goes on for too long or gets off track. Try bringing the group’s attention back to the topic by referring to the session agenda and inviting members to continue their conversations after the session.

For example: “I’m glad we all have so many success stories to share about our time with Toastmasters, and I encourage you to continue these conversations after the session. For now, let’s get back to discussing your responsibilities on the executive committee.”

5. ASK

- What are the responsibilities of the president?
  - Preside over meetings
  - Earn distinguished club recognition
  - Lead and guide
  - Base Camp Manager

6. Write responses on a flip chart.

7. PRESENT

- Your role as president as stated in the Club Constitution and Standard Bylaws of Toastmasters International is: “The club president is the chief executive officer of this club and is responsible for fulfilling the mission of the club. The president presides at meetings of this club and the club executive committee; appoints all committees; and has general supervision of the operation of this club.”

- The constitution provides a definition. Yet, there are many responsibilities that make up the day-to-day activities of a president.

- Everything you do as president should support the club mission.
Activity: President Role

NOTE TO FACILITATOR

For this activity, you will review the club mission statement with the group and ask participants to get into teams of four. Each team will be asked to brainstorm how their role supports the club mission.

1. SHOW the Activity: President Role slide.

2. ASK
   - What is the club mission?
     - We provide a supportive and positive learning experience in which members are empowered to develop communication and leadership skills, resulting in greater self-confidence and personal growth.

3. INSTRUCT presidents to arrange themselves in teams of four.

4. INSTRUCT teams to spend 15 minutes brainstorming how the president supports the achievement of the club mission.

NOTE TO FACILITATOR

Walk around during the team discussions. This will allow you to answer any questions that come up and give you an idea of the responses the teams will share.

5. TIME 15 minutes.
NOTE TO FACILITATOR

Indicate that time is up with a positive statement, such as “Let’s talk together now,” rather than simply announcing, “Time’s up!”

6. INSTRUCT each team to share their findings with the group.

7. INSTRUCT presidents to return to their seats.
